KANSAS CITY CAR EMPLOYEES STRIKE

Motormen and Conductors Numbering Several Hundred Men Walk Out.

POWER PLANTS UNDER GUARD

Police and Watchmen Keep All But Persons Loyal to Company Away From Property.

Kansas City, Aug. 8.—The predicted strike of the carmen of the street railway company began on schedule time at 4:35 o'clock this morning.

The street railway company succeeded in starting cars on most of the important lines. These were operated in most cases by picked crews of men of known loyalty to the company. It is understood the company is not attempting to operate some of the minor divisions.

The men asserted that nine hundred men had signed, but that the papers were not at headquarters. They reached labor headquarters in squads. One party of forty-two men in uniform arrived at 1:15, another of twenty-seven at 2 o'clock and an hour later fifty-eight men reported there. These were in addition to the men who attended the 8 o'clock and 11:30 o'clock meetings. The leaders said this number would grow steadily and that the full force of the strike would not be apparent until 6 o'clock tonight when the last crews are due to report.

Organizer Here Today.

The arrival of Mangus Sinclair, an organizer for the international organization of street car men, today, is expected to put stability into the strike. However, at Labor Temple early this morning it was said that a plan to arrest Sinclair as soon as he arrives had been revealed.

Precaution at Big Power Plant.

When the shift of electricians and power plant workers reported at the usual shift changing hour of midnight at Second street and Grand avenue last night, the men who had taken part in the recent walkout there were refused admittance.

Those in charge of the plant were seasoned men, loyal to the street railway company, and it was said on good authority they would "stick with the company" and work all day today if necessary to avert a tieup of the plant by men in sympathy with the strikers.

Men Out Were Orderly.

About three hundred men work out of the Brighton barn. Of that number about one-third are on early morning runs. A crowd of more than fifty trainmen, who announced they were not going on their runs, congregated about the barns long before the hour of the strike. They showed no signs of violence, but none were allowed to get near the carbarn office or to interfere with the dispatching of cars. Guards were posted entirely around the plant to check any sort of violence.

Great Progress Has Been Made in the Four Months Since Hostilities Were Declared.

Washington, Aug. 7.—Entering today upon its fifth month of war, America found itself far advanced as a factor in overcoming Germany.

Pershing's division is rapidly shaping for actual trench service. American destroyers prowling the U-boat zone, while scores of new destroyers are building.
